

The Anti-Social Behaviour
Victim Promise

How to Take The Victim Promise

- What is it? The Victim Promise is an affirmation that agencies will put victims at the heart of their anti-social behaviour management processes.
- How can you sign up? Signing up to the Victim Promise is free and could not be easier. Download the Victim Promise by visiting Home - ASB HELP

By taking the Victim Promise, you are agreeing to publicise your commitment to it and take steps to ensure it is embedded into your agency's day to day work.
- How will our communities know we have taken the Victim Promise? You can advertise the Victim Promise on your website and in your literature. When you have taken the Victim Promise, email us at admin@asbhelp.co.uk and we will send you the Victim Promise logo to use and add you to our interactive map of agencies who have taken the Promise.
- Who can take The Victim Promise? Police, councils, registered providers of housing, and any agency with an anti-social behaviour management function.
